

Me and my Mishpacha!

My Family Journal

To accompany the book

This is a book about you and your family! Here you can draw, write, paint, and add your own materials to show what makes your family special.

Answer each question with a drawing and ask an adult to help write the words!

Who is in your family?

What does your family like to do for fun together?

In Goodnight Bubbala the bunny family likes to eat bagels, kneidels and latkes.

What is one of your family's favorite foods?

Taking the time to say goodnight to the people that you love and to your books and toys is a way to be thankful--to show gratitude.

What are you thankful for?

What is your favorite thing to do
at your bedtime?

Notes for Adults:

- Before assigning or offering this journal activity to children, take a “book walk” through the Goodnight Bubbala book, asking simple questions such as who is in this family? What are they doing? Define some of the Yiddish words.

- Read the Goodnight Bubbala book.
- Talk through the questions in this journal with children so they understand what is being asked of them.
- As children draw their answers, adults can help by writing or spelling the words.
- When the journal is finished, share and read it together.
